

NEW ZEALAND ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS OF SINGING

With the Help and Support of presents

A Voice Workshop

With

Irene Bartlett M.Mus. Studies (Voice)

Lecturer in Jazz/Contemporary Voice and Vocal Pedagogy, Coordinator of Young Conservatorium Contemporary Voice programme, Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University.

Irene is recognised nationally and internationally as a leading contemporary voice specialist. Her students have been the recipients of many prestigious awards and work professionally in both the popular music and music theatre industry. In addition to her work in education, Irene has an enduring career as a professional vocalist. She has a wealth of performance experience covering the full range of contemporary styles – Jazz to pop, Music Theatre to Country and Rock. She is the featured vocalist with her jazz concert group and corporate show band, MoodSwing.

Date: August 21st 2010

Time: 9am to 5pm

Place: NASDA (National Academy of Singing and Dramatic Art), E Block, CPIT

Cost

Members $ 25

NonMembers $35

Students $12

Registration Enquiries FalgarL@cpit.ac.nz or Laura Falgar ph 03 940 8085